The Juniata and Susquehanna rivers are quite high, from the late rains, and has caused the residents along the latter river some uneasiness.

James Bell, a freight brakeman on Conductor Hackett's train, was struck on the head by a stone thrown by some vilain, cutting an ugly gash, while pass-ing Perdix station, west of Marysville, on Saturday evening a week.

Considerable complaint is made garding the manner in which one of the Carroll twp., teachers corrects his scholars. If the charges are true there is reason for complaint, and the directors should take the matter in hand.

The four-horse team belonging to Mr. Anthony Fuhrman ran away on Mon-day of last week from the front of Smith's store in Newport and at the railroad crossing a train caused them to turn short around breaking the wagon tongue, when the arrival of the driver prevented further damage.

The supposed thief, driving the horse and buggy, crossed the river bridge on his way up Tuscarora Valley, at Mifflin early on Saturday morning.

A tract of timber land in Centre twp., containing 240 acres, the property of Gotleib Light to Alexander Catheart for $250.

A tract of land in Watts twp., containing 50 acres, and having thereon elected a two story log house, log barn, &c., the property of James Wright to W. A. Sponsler for $50.

A tract of land in Oliver twp., containing 52, about 15 cleared, having thereon erected a one and a half story stone house, frame stable, &c., the property of David P. Clouser to F. B. Clouser for $247.

The balance of the properties advertised to be sold were held over, the new Stay Law interfering with the sale of them.

Petty Thieving. - On Thursday night, some person picked the lock on the smoke-house belonging to Mr. J. W. Soule in Centre township, and carried off several pieces of meat ..

On the same night, the chicken coop of Cornelius Clouser was visited by some thief, and some poultry was carried nway.

The smoke-houses of Mr. D. Holmes and Mr. Andrew Comp were also visited the same night, but they had previously removed their meat.

The person who stole the meat at Mr. Soule's was tracked to this town, by a peculiarty of the boots, the tracks plainly showing until they, had passed beyond Mr. Nickel's shop. It was the same track too, that was around the two places in town were searched, but no clue to the thief was obtained.

The March Weather .- B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of March, 1877. Average of thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 31 and 46'-of the barometer 30 inches minus seven tenths, average of the greatest degree of heat 40° and 23° of the lowest degree of cold 250 and 15'. There fell 4 inches and 6 tenths of rain, and 161 inches of snow. The coldest day was Sunday the 18th, the thermometer sinking to 4° below Zero, and Saturday the 16th was the warmest day the thermometer running up to 532 above Zero. The month averaged within a degree and a half as cold as February.

How the Mall is Distributed. - If you have any letters that have "turned up missing" perhaps the following may account for it. It also shows what a splendid thing our fast mail is. The Harrisburg Patriot says: There was a lively distribution of the mail the other day by the day express on the Pennsylvania railroad a short distance East of Huntingdon. The agent in charge of the mail car had his lever set to pick up a mail bag. By some means the lever missed its mark, and the pouch was thrown under the train. It was found between the brake shoe and the wheel, where, if allowed to remain much longer, would have thrown the car from the track. It was a fortunate escape for the train, but there are many people by this time, wondering why they don't receive replies to their letters. The track was strewn with missives for at least fives mile, but the train was saved.

The Result of a Neglect of Duty.-The borough auditors of Chester Springs, Cambria county, have got themselves into a peck of trouble, through their own negligence. It seems, says the Johnstown Tribune, that their failure to comply with the law requiring them to publish the annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of that district either by hand bill or in the two papers having the largest circulation, has induced some of the taxpayers to enter suit against them, and the chances are that the fine which attaches to neglect of this nature will be imposed. It is rather rough on the auditors, but they should understand their duty properly, and then there will be no risk of this kind. There are several districts in this county where the law has been heretofore a nullity as far making annual statements public is concerned, and it behooves those interested to attend to this matter, or they may likewise suffer a like ordeal, Sudden Death at Baldwin.-On Saturday the 24th ult., in Lower Baldwin, a man known as Johnny Bengal, died suddenly while sitting on a chair at the residence of Mr. J. Cross. He was singing "The little log cabin in the lane," and suddenly fell back and almost instantly expired; it is presumed from heart disease. The funeral took place on Monday.

Juniata County. - We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Last Wednesday Joseph Williams was helping to dig a well on the Yoder farm, one mile cast of this place, in Fermanagh township, and while thus engaged a stone loosened from the side of the well at a point about twenty feet above where Williams worked. The weight of the stone is about twenty-five pounds. In its fall it struck Williams in the left side of the head, cutting through a thick cap and making a gash of about two inches in length in the head clean to the skullbone, and thence downward, inflicting a stunning blow on the ribs that so pros-trated Williams that Dr. Elder was speedily summoned to minister to him. The injured man is improving as rapidly as can be expected under his load of afflictions.—Sentinel.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On Friday afternoon officer Byers, of Newville, arrested James Hannon, of Shippensburg, one of the parties charged by the men now awaiting trial with be-ing implicated in the Shippensburg arson cases. Hannon was arrested in the neighborhood of Doubling Gap and was brought to Carlisle and lodged in jail to await trial at the approaching Quarter Sessions. This makes the sixteenth person awaiting trial and the sixth for arson.—Mirror.

On Saturday morning the lifeless body of John B. Noble-better known as "Beefy"—was found in the stable attached to the Thudium hotel. For a long time past he had been indulging to excess in drink and dissipation and doubtless laid down in the stable in an intoxicated state. Coroner Smith held an inquest and the jury returned a ver-dict of died from "long continued dissi-

Two of Pinkerton's detectives visited Oakvills on Friday a week, having "shadowed" a man whom they supposed was a car robber. The detectives first got sight of their man at Patterson, Juniata county, and followed him up until he left the cars at Oakville. It was then the detectives learned that he was not the man wanted, he being a law-abiding citizen. The detectives left Oakville on the evening train east, and spent Friday night in Carlisle.
